

Curt H. Feig

Member

Direct: 206.838.7543

Email: cfeig@nicollblack.com

Practice Areas

- Insurance Coverage
- Insurance Bad Faith
- General Litigation

Personal Narrative

After obtaining his law degree, Curt joined the insurance coverage group at Cozen O'Connor's Northwest Regional Office in Seattle. He became a Member of the firm in 1997 and served as the Vice Chairman of the firm's Environmental Coverage practice group in 2003. Along with three colleagues from Cozen O'Connor, Curt formed Nicoll Black Misenti & Feig (now Nicoll Black & Feig) in September, 2004.

Curt has extensive experience representing insurers in all aspects of insurance coverage, including advising clients on pre-suit claims handling and litigation in the areas of environmental liability, construction defect liability, products liability, first-party property losses, builders risk coverage, and bad faith claims and litigation. He also represents insurers in insurer vs. insurer disputes involving claims for contribution, subrogation and indemnity as well as primary/excess disputes. He has also represented insureds in various construction and bodily injury litigation. He is a member of the American, Washington and King County Bar Associations, the Oregon Bar, and is admitted to practice in the 9th Circuit as well as Federal Court for the Western District of Washington and the District of Oregon. Curt was named a "Super Lawyer" by Washington Law & Politics in 2000-2003 and 2005 through the present. Curt is a frequent speaker on insurance topics.

Representative Matters

- Represented lead third-party insurer in Alcoa v. Admiral insurance coverage litigation in King County Superior Court where total damages sought exceeded $1 billion.
- Represented numerous insurers in multi-million dollar coverage litigation involving liability for defective hardboard siding.
- Represented numerous insurers in construction defect coverage claims, assisting insurers in responding to claims and in resolving underlying construction defect litigation.
- Represented insurer in several claims arising out of claims for clergy abuse in connection with Roman Catholic Archdiocese.

- Represented insurers in numerous first-party claims alleging collapse coverage arising from construction defects.

Education

Saint Olaf College, B.A. in Philosophy cum laude, 1980

University of Puget Sound School of Law, J.D. summa cum laude 1990

Professional Experience

Associate, Cozen O'Connor, 1990 – 1995

Junior Member, Cozen O'Connor, 1995 -- 2000

Senior Member, Cozen O'Connor, 2000 – 2004

Founding Member, Nicoll Black & Feig, 2004 – present

Associations

American Bar Association

Washington State Bar Association

Oregon Bar Association

Defense Research Institute

Honors

“Super Lawyer” 2000, 2003, 2005-2008

Bar Memberships

Washington State

Oregon State

U.S. District Court, Western District of Washington

U.S. District Court, District of Oregon

U.S. Court of Appeals, Ninth Circuit